

Bridges, Saddles and Orchids (Greencastle, Roachdale and Cloverdale)

Day One

Start your day in Greencastle at the Locust Hill Antiques. Built in the mid 1800s, this home turned antique shop seems to still be haunted by its former residents.

Tour Putnam County's world famous covered bridges. Built in the 1800s these statuesque beauties still make way for travelers today.

Then inhale the smells from Harris Sugar Bush. This modern-day tree-tapping production site turns tree sap into the sweet things we like to eat - maple candy, syrup, sugar and more.

Then shop for that cowboy hat you've always wanted at Brackney's Western Store. Family owned and operated, Brackney's also features high-quality saddles hand-made onsite.

Day Two

Start your day in Roachdale at Indonesian Interiors where you'll find unique gifts, accessories and furnishings. The owners will intrigue you with stories of their homeland.

Near Cloverdale tour a horticultural feast of orchids at Hilltop Orchids. The facility blooms up to 80,000 orchids year round.

Visit Cataract Falls State Recreation Area offering wonderful views of Indiana's largest waterfalls. Enjoy a catered lunch or dinner on the near by covered bridge.
